

Buzzfeed Jesus

“Immediately and at once”

Mark 1: 1-9 “The ruler of everything is on his way”

Section 1: The Message (1:9 – 3:12)

The Ruler is God’s Son

Therefore authority over:

- Satan
- People
- Evil
- Sickness
- Through his words

Authority to do what?

- Make people clean
- Forgive sins
- Welcome sinners
- Rewrite the law

Response.....

- Hatred (3:6)

Repent and believe – how are you responding to the message?

Section 2: The Power (3:13 – 6:6)

Listen to Jesus words (4) because they

- Control nature
- Bring humanity back out of chaos
- Call forth faith
- Defeat death

But amazingly, people miss it!

“The measure you use it will be measured to you” – are you listening to Jesus powerful words?

Section 3: The Training (6:7 – 8:30)

- Two Parties
- The God of the Old Testament is here
- People are unclean

So trust him! But will they see? Even after the same miracle twice?

8:27-30 In the end Peter gets there? (1:1)

Intermission: The ruler from God has the power to make us clean – trust his words and you'll see

Will you see who Jesus is?

Section 4: The Cost (8:31 – 10:52)

How does the King's authority, through his words, make us clean? Through his death.

Prediction 1:

Implications:

Prediction 2:

Implications:

- For me
- For loving others
- For sin
- For marriage
- For children
- For money
- For life

Prediction 3:

Implications:

- The attitude you shouldn't have
- The attitude you should have

Will you trust Jesus death? And therefore humble yourself?

Section 5: The Judgement (11:1 – 13:37)

The Fig Tree and the Temple – no fruit

We can't accept the new kingdom because of

- Politics
- Marriage
- Loving God and people
- Self seeking pride
- Valuing wrong things

So God will get rid of the whole thing.

Are you a fruitless tree because you are committed to your own rightness?

Section 6: The Love (14:1 – 16:8)

His life is his death

God will strike the shepherd

Abandoned, crowned, forsaken – the King rules by serving

The best Mark sandwich: Death, curtain, soldier – his death makes us clean

Conclusion: He is alive, just as he said
